Location: Barleben

Federal state: Saxony-Anhalt

Economic area: Middle Germany

Traffic infrastructure: exclusive connection

Statement: Over the last 18 years, the previously rather rural region has developed itself to an emerging centre of technology and manufacturing. This transition was achievable thanks to the long-term oriented strategies of the local authorities and facilitated by the immediate vicinity of the federal state capital Magdeburg. An outstanding combination that offers technical and social infrastructure according to European standards and competitive location costs.

Franz-Ulrich Keindorff, Mayor
